

The Long Beach Community Improvement League (LBCIL)

LBCIL-IPAA-LACPA-Human Trafficking Conference 8-27-2016

In collaboration with the Iranian Psychological Association of America (IPAA)

Los Angeles County Psychological Association (LACPA)

Will Present:

Human Trafficking - The Modern-Day Slavery

Saturday, August 27, 2016 - 1 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Long Beach Community Improvement League, Signal Hill Center
Las Brisas Community Room
2399 California Avenue, Signal Hill 90755

A three-hour educational research-based conference on Human Trafficking
Presented by experts, distinguished scholars, and psychologists
Survivors of Human Trafficking Testimonials

The conference will emphasize the role of psychologists and their social responsibility in ending human trafficking and helping victims and survivors through public awareness campaigns, education and advocacy. It will cover the following subject matters:

- 1. An overview of research on Human Trafficking: Prevalence and Risk of Violence and the Physical, Mental, and Sexual Health Problems Associated with Human Trafficking
- 2. The social, economic, legal, physical, social, and psychological impacts of Human Trafficking: Emphasis will be placed on psychological effects including:

Mind/body separation and disassociated ego states, Shame, Grief, Fear, Distrust, Self-hatred, Suicide, and Suicidal Thoughts.

- 3. Helping Survivors Cope

Advance Registration Is Required - "First-come, first-served"

Only the First 50 Registered Individuals May Attend the Conference

Psychologists and Mental Health Providers Will Receive 3 Hours of Continued Education Unit Credit (CEC) Issued by IPAA (provided that they meet the requirements)

Refreshments and Handouts Provided

More Information & Updates are forthcoming

Please check the following websites as we get closer to the conference date

LBCIL: www.lbcil.org & IPAA: www.myipaa.org